

Responding to disasters

 Add your own ideas to the web.

 Divide the ideas into Personal action, Community support/campaign action, Government action, International action.

Which are relevant to helping the victims of the tsunami disaster?

Which are relevant to reducing the disaster of world poverty in general?

Which are charitable and which are to do with making the world a fairer place?

... Remember self help! People don't necessarily want charity, here as well as in other countries.
Self-help in the South is often more effective than help given by outside experts. ...