Your relationship to this child:

Adult responsible for this child while you are on shift:.....

Please read:

I agree to be responsible for this child at the festival. I will not take him/her on shift with me. I will ensure that he/she is looked after while I'm on shift, as appropriate to their age. I understand that failure to do so will jeopardise my position as a campaigner and the return of my deposit.

I will not abuse my position as an Oxfam campaigner to get my (or any other) child into the festival if they do not have the appropriate ticket for their age.

I have checked (name of festival) website and have bought tickets if required for any child in my care.

I accept that if children who are in my care are disruptive or disrespectful to other people in Oxfam's camping area, I may be asked to camp elsewhere. In some circumstances I may be asked to leave the festival site (and forfeit my deposit).
