

Oxfam D.I.Y with Mrs Jones

"Anything can be given a secondlife. Just open your eyes and look what's around you. There are a thousand and one things at home that can be turned into a piece of art, furniture or clothing. You ain't got to spend thousands of pounds to achieve a couture look. The even better thing is that no one else has it!

This is a beautiful example: a street couture red carpet dress made out of a bedspread: guaranteed to blow any designer piece out of the water. And how wonderful to say it once was a..."
