

Wanted: the money you're going to save buying fewer cards this festive season.

Simply write your festive messages to your colleagues here, and pop the money you've saved on cards into the collection box. Simple. In a life-changing, poverty-busting way. Thanks very much for your support.