

A woman and a young girl are smiling and looking upwards. They are positioned in front of a background of large, light-colored puzzle pieces. The woman is wearing a patterned headscarf and a dark top, and the girl is wearing a yellow top with pink bows. The puzzle pieces are arranged in a way that they appear to be part of a larger, incomplete picture.

FAMILIES
TOGETHER

Help rebuild lives

Rebuild families

Photo © UNHCR/Hannah Maule-ffinch

Imagine fleeing war, but having to leave your mum, dad, brother or sister behind. Right now, this is the reality for many refugees, denied the right to be with the people they love.

Families are often separated as they flee conflict and persecution in search of safety. Being reunited means everything. Yet needlessly strict UK laws are preventing this from happening. Such rules are leaving vulnerable people isolated, traumatised and alone.

This must change. You can help refugees reunite with their families and put their lives back together.

I am calling on the UK Government to keep refugee families together because...

First name

School

FAMILIES
TOGETHER

Photo © UNHCR/Annie Sakkab

A photograph of a woman and two children smiling and laughing. The woman is wearing a blue headscarf and a dark patterned top. The children are wearing a plaid shirt and a teal shirt. The image is composed of several puzzle pieces, with the central piece missing, creating a large white space in the middle. The puzzle pieces are dark grey and black, contrasting with the light background.

Lives have been left in pieces
Help keep families together

Imagine fleeing war, but having to leave your mum, dad, brother or sister behind. Right now, this is the reality for many refugees, denied the right to be with the people they love.

Families are often separated as they flee conflict and persecution in search of safety. Being reunited means everything. Yet needlessly strict UK laws are preventing this from happening. Such rules are leaving vulnerable people isolated, traumatised and alone.

This must change. You can help refugees reunite with their families and put their lives back together.

I am calling on the UK Government to keep refugee families together because...

First name

School